JOHN WILLS,

Vice-Chancellor.

THE Curators of the Bodleian Library, having sometime ago requested from the several Colleges accounts of the books in their Libraries which are not in the Bodleian, and having received no such returns, beg leave to renew their application, and desire the favour of those Societies, which may think proper to comply with their request, to transmit such lists made out upon comparison with the printed Bodleian Catalogue, to the Vice-Chancellor or any of the Curators, on or before the last day of Michaelmas Term 1796.

DELEGATES' Room,
Dec. 8, 1795.
